PLANS APPROVED FOR NEW BUILDING

Jackson Township Officials Will Advertise For Bids To Erect One-Story Grade School

NOT TO COST OVER $49,000

Basement Will Contain Cymnasium And First Four Class Rooms And Large Auditorium

A modern consolidated school building of brick and hollow tile construction, one story high with a basement and gymnasium that may be used for stock shows, will be erected in Jackson township during the spring and summer at a cost not to exceed $49,000, it became known today when the township trustee, Henry W. Beckner, and the township advisory board approved the plans for the structure.

The township officials will advertise for bids within twenty-five days and will attempt to get the construction under way early in the spring so that the building may be completed and ready for use by the opening of school next fall.

The advisory board which is composed of Jesse A. Leisner, Chester M. Cross and Oliver M. Siler, together with the trustee, conferred with the architect, Karl P. Henkle of Connersville, who drew the plans, at A. L. Gary's office today.

There are approximately one hundred pupils in Jackson township, who have been transported to the Rushville city schools this year on account of the two small buildings in the township being condemned by the state board of health as unfit for use.

Patrons of the Jackson township schools have been dissatisfied with the arrangements, preferring to have a school of their own.

The new building will be erected on the site on the Wilkinson farm, located on the Knightstown pike, which was condemned by Alva Newhouse, trustee, who retired January 1 by court procedure. An effort made by Mr. Newhouse to erect a consolidated school building during his term of office failed when a remonstrance against the bond issue was sustained by the state board of tax commissioners.

The present township officials feel that a grade building will meet the needs of the township for the present as there are not enough high school pupils to warrant the opening of a high school but the building will be made large enough so that if the need for a high school ever arises, the building will serve the purpose. The graduates of the Jackson township grades will continue to attend the Rushville high school unless it is found some time in the future that Jackson township can operate a high school cheaper than the pupils can be sent to another township.

The new building will have outside dimensions of 83 by 118 feet and will face the south. The first floor will consist of four class rooms each large enough to accommodate thirty-seven pupils, and an auditorium in the rear, 35 by 96 feet that will accommodate approximately six hundred people.

A stage 20 by 35 feet will be erected in one end of the auditorium. In the basement will be girls' and boys' toilets, showers, manual training and agricultural department and sewing and cooking rooms for the domestic science classes. The trustee's storage room and gymnasium will also be located in the basement.

The gymnasium will be 35 by 80

DWELLING HOUSE DAMAGED

Defective Flue Sets Roof on Fire, Causing $25 Loss

A dwelling house occupied by Charley Levi, 211 North Palo Alto Street, was damaged by fire. Quick action by the fire department, kept the loss to a minimum, and chemicals extinguished the blaze. The loss, which is estimated at $25, was confined solely to the building, which is owned by Thomas Sullivan. On account of the high wind, a small fire today would soon spread and get beyond control.

The alarm this morning was turned in at 7:50 o'clock from box 34, corner Second and Jackson streets.

CASE SET FOR TRIAL TODAY IS POSTPONED

Illness of One of Main Witnesses Responsible For Hearing Being Called Off

JUDGE FOR CLEVELER CASE

The case of Cook against Hinds, scheduled for trial in the circuit court today before a jury, was postponed when a principal witness was reported to be sick, and the jury, which had been previously called for today, was notified not to report.

Court matters this morning were being taken up in an ante-room of the court room, because it was impossible to heat in the court room proper on account of the strong wind. A demurrer to the complaint of Pat Carroll against the City of Rushville, was being argued this morning.

In the case of the state against Fred Clevenger, charged with subornation of perjury, the defense filed a motion for a change of judge, which was granted, and by agreement of the attorneys, Judge Fred Gause of Newcastle was decided upon to try the cause.

The case was originally set for February 21, but the date now will be changed, and will be optional with the judge-elect.

CHARITY CARD PARTY TO FOLLOW NEW PLAN

No Invitations Will be Issued, But Tables May be Reserved by Individuals or Groups

MILK LUNCH FUND BENEFIT

A new plan was announced today for the charity card party which will be given by the Psi Iota Xi sorority at the Elks club Wednesday afternoon, February 21, at 2:30 o'clock, for the benefit of the school milk lunch fund, which is administered by the Rushville Woman's Council. Bridge and Five Hundred will be played and the admission will be fifty cents.

No invitations will be issued and reservations may be made by calling any of the following members of the sorority: Mrs. Floyd Kirklin, phone 1821; Mrs. Cullen Sexton, phone 2352; or Miss Mary L. Wyatt, phone 1261.

In making reservations, it is urged that those who expect to attend state if they wish to be placed at a certain table, or if they have arranged for a table, to state with whom they expect to play. The play will be by tables instead of progressing through the room, but if a crowd should desire to reserve a number of tables, they may progress among themselves.

It is urgently requested that reservations be made at once so that the sorority may know how many to expect. The prizes will be donated by the patronesses and other friends of the sorority.

MRS. E. A. LEE IMPROVES

Mrs. E. A. Lee, who has been seriously ill at her home in West First street, was reported to be better today.

CAPACITY CROWDS ATTEND INSTITUTE

Classes in all Departments Full of Exhibits at Farmers Meeting in Carthage Today

COMMUNITY DINNER AT NOON

George I. Christie, Head of Purdue Extension Department, Compliments Community Highly

Capacity crowds were in attendance at the Ripley township farmers institute, which opened at the Carthage Auditorium Tuesday evening and continued through today. The principal feature of the institute was an address at the opening session by George I. Christie, head of the extension division of Purdue university.

There was a large list of entries in the corn, potato and poultry shows, as well as the ladies department, where there were prizes for yeast and salt rising bread, white layer, devil's food and solid cake of any variety, doughnuts, butter, eggs, and nut bread. Many entries were also listed in the girl's department.

The exhibits were made in the gymnasium on the top floor of the building and the institute sessions were held in the auditorium of the building. A community dinner was served today noon in the basement of the building, which is specially equipped for such purposes.

The main addresses were made today by Mrs. Lillian Pierce and William Madigan. Mrs. Pierce spoke this morning on "Rural Community Life and Its Possibilities" and this afternoon on "The Woman of The Hour". Mr. Madigan's subject this morning was "Farm Management" and this afternoon it was "Production of Pork".

Entertainment features on the program today consisted of music by the Carthage community orchestra, vocal selections by the high school glee club and a reading by Mrs. Eldon Outland.

The ten ears of corn that won the sweepstakes prize for the best ten ears, any color, at the Rush county corn show the first of this month, were on exhibit at the show. The corn was raised by Chase Hiner of Center township.

The auditorium was filled to the doors when Prof. Christie spoke last night. He discussed farming as an occupation and compared present methods of tilling the soil with those of long ago. He said he was amazed at the progress made by farmers when they did not have the improvements they enjoy today.

Mr. Christie emphasized the importance of using Indiana products and of placing Indiana in the front ranks of the states. He urged loyalty to Indiana by buying Indiana articles whenever possible.

Mr. Christie complimented Carthage highly on the Auditorium because of the opportunity it affords of holding community gatherings such as the institute. He stated that few towns the size of Carthage could boast of a building so well equipped that met the needs of the community.

The opening program began with music by the community orchestra, which was followed with a selection by the high school glee club. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Arthur Jean, pastor of the Fletcher M. E. church at Carthage. Following a solo by Miss Freda McGeorge, Miss Grace Overman gave three readings that were very much appreciated. The program closed with a vocal duet by Mrs. Rowland Morgan and Miss Lavaghn Sears, Mrs. Harold Watts providing the accompaniment.

NO NEW CASES REPORTED

The smallpox situation in Orange is improving, according to reports from that vicinity this morning. No new cases of the epidemic has been reported during the last few weeks and those who have been afflicted are improving. All the residents of the vicinity have been vaccinated and it is hoped that the situation will continue to improve.

HOW TEACHER CAN BUILD CHARACTER

Subject Discussed by A. M. Taylor at Regular Meeting of Kiwanis Club Today Noon

LINCOLN AS AN EXAMPLE

Speaker Draws Distinction Between Educated and Learned Man—Month's Program on Education

Pursuing its program on the topic of "Education" for this month, the Kiwanis club heard an address today noon at the regular luncheon at the Social club by A. M. Taylor, former principal and present instructor in mathematics in the Rushville high school.

Mr. Taylor's theme was "General Education." The subject for the first meeting in February was "Kiwanis Education," which was discussed by J. T. Arbuckle, a district trustee in the Indiana Kiwanis organization. The subject "Vocational Education" will be discussed next Tuesday by Carl Miller, vocational teacher in the Walker township schools.

Mr. Taylor, in his talk today, showed the kinship between the motto of the Kiwanis club, "We Build," and the watchword of the true teacher, "Building Character."

The speaker pointed out the ways in which character may be built by the teacher. He asserted that it could be done in mathematics by the pupil being made stronger through doing of a hard problem.

Mr. Taylor also referred to other studies in showing how the teacher can be a character builder.

The high school teacher also drew a distinction between the learned man and the educated man. He pointed to Abraham Lincoln as the truly educated man because he could apply all that he knew. The speaker said that the learned man could not put into practice what he knows.

M. S. Keys of Frankfort, Ind., and George F. Redelman of Greensburg were visitors at the meeting today.

ZERO TEMPERATURE FAILS TO ARRIVE

Colder Weather Prevails Today, However, and is Accentuated By High Northwest Winds

COLD WAVE MOVES EASTWARD

Although the weather man missed his guess on the zero temperature this morning, he ran true to form in predicting colder weather during the night, and with high northwest winds which prevailed throughout last night and today.

The indications are that near zero to ten degrees above will be reached during tonight, and that Thursday will be fair and cold. The lowest reached here last night was reported at 15 degrees above zero by Elwood Kirkwood. At no time during the day did the mercury advance to more than 20 degrees, and it was expected that it would take a downward trend late this afternoon.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Transportation lines throughout the northwest were paralyzed today as a result of the worst blizzard of the year which was sweeping eastward.

Trains were marooned in snow drifts in Minnesota, Northern Wisconsin, Montana and the Dakotas. Temperatures in the middle west fell rapidly as the storm swept eastward. It was 5 degrees below zero in Chicago.

The weather bureau predicted it would be 10 below by Thursday morning, a record low for the winter. Cold wave warnings were issued for Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, Pennsylvania and New York.

HOPE TO PASS BILL TODAY

Washington, Feb. 14.—Hoping to get the British funding bill through the senate tonight, administration leaders were ready today to remain in session for twelve hours or more to accomplish the object.

RUSHVILLE MAN ARRESTED

Harry Rainey Accused Of Violating Liquor Laws At Newcastle

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Newcastle, Ind., Feb. 14.—Two men were arrested here last night by officers and placed in jail on a charge of violating the prohibition laws. The men arrested gave their names as Harry Rainey of Rushville and Edgar Felner of Muncie.

According to the officers, the two men were riding in an automobile in which a quantity of liquor was found. The two were placed in jail, and were to be given a hearing this afternoon at two o'clock in court.

FRANCE MAKES BID FOR BRITISH HELP

Refusal to Permit Troop-Guarded Trains in English Zone Hampers French Plan in Ruhr

ALLIED SPLIT AIDS GERMANY

Tension in Occupied Area Increases With Arrest of 32 When City Refuses to Pay Fine

(By United Press)

France made another bid for British assistance in the economic war against Germany today. Minister of public Works LeTroquer went to London to ask Britain to let fuel trains, guarded by French troops, pass through the British zone on the Rhine.

Britain's refusal to permit troops—manned trains to cross the Cologne zone has seriously hampered the French in their plan to cut off the Ruhr from unoccupied Germany, seize coal at the pitheads and move it in heavy guarded trains, which also will carry hostages, up the Rhine to the Lorraine smelters.

Premier Bonar Law has indicated his government opposes such transport and may refuse the French request.

Germany viewed with favor the split in the entente and renewed bitter protests against the French and Belgian plan of isolating the Ruhr and preventing export of steel and coal.

A leading member of the Reichstag declared today the French have reintroduced vasalism, into Germany turned school children into the streets, established red light districts in occupied towns and are using black troops.

Tension in the Ruhr increased, dangerously close to the breaking point at Essen, Gelsenkirchen and Recklinghausen. Thirty-two arrests, including prominent bankers, were made at Gelsenkirchen following the city's refusal to pay a fine of 100,000,000 marks levied for the shooting of two French officers. The city's entire police force is under arrest and will be tried by court martial.

Brussels Feb. 14.—Telephonic communications between Belgium and Germany was cut off today.

London Feb. 14.—A dispatch to the Times from Strasbourg says that Herr Schworer, sub-prefect of Offenburg, has been arrested for refusal to obey the French.

Essen, Feb. 14.—The city of Gelsenkirchen today refused to pay a

SERIES OF FIRES TAKE A HEAVY TOLL IN LIVES

(By United Press)

Serious fires causing heavy losses of property and taking a toll of several lives, were reported today, accompanying the cold wave. Fires were reported as follows:

Omaha, Nebraska, one million dollars damage to the Armour Packing Company plant.

Pine City, Minnesota, four children burned to death when fire destroyed their home.

Joplin, Mo., fireman killed in church fire.

Montreal church destroyed by fire.

Senate Passes Bill Prohibiting Cities And Towns From Adopting Such Ordinances

NEW BILLS INTRODUCED

Foes Of "Blue Memorial Day" Bill Turn To Governor As Last Resort To Prevent Passage

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—The Indiana state debt amounts to $2,165,000, according to a statement made to the senate today by Robert Bracken, auditor of state, in compliance with a senate resolution demanding a statement of the financial conditions of Indiana. Bracken included a list of state depositories and gave the amount deposited in each. The statement showed that Indiana has $8,105,816.52 in the depositories from the various state funds.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—Endorsement of the public service commission was indicated in the senate today when it refused to deny the commission's authority and voted to postpone indefinitely a bill to place Fort Wayne municipalities under the control of the board of works there. The bill was introduced by Senator Hartzell. The vote on the measure was 30 to 13 and was made on a motion of Senator Swain to postpone indefinitely further consideration.

Daylight saving in Indiana received a death blow in the senate which passed Senator Hodges bill prohibiting city and towns from adopting daylight saving ordinances. The vote was 32 to 4. The measure now goes to the house of representatives for further action.

A measure to provide that motor bus lines be operated under certificates of convenience issued by the public service commission that the rates be fixed by the commission and that the buses be taxed on the basis of mileage travelled and passengers carried, was introduced by Representative Eikhoff.

A measure abolishing the department of Conservation failed when the house approved the report of the committee on natural resources recommending indefinite postponement of a bill introduced by Representative Peterson.

WILL TRY TO ADD TWO MILLIONS TO MEASURE

Administration Forces in Senate Will Attempt to Tack Items on Appropriation Bill

WAS REDUCED IN THE HOUSE

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—Administration forces in the state senate today prepared for a determined effort to add approximately two million dollars to the pending sixteen million dollar appropriation bill.

It was learned authoritatively that amendments to be attached to the bill with the sanction of enough members of the majority to assure their adoption are:

1—One million dollars for construction of more building at Purdue University, the Muncie State Normal school, the soldiers home at Lafayette and the Riley hospital in Indianapolis.

2—Restore the appropriation for completing the reformatory at Pendleton to two million dollars as requested by Governor McCray. It was reduced to $1,500,000 by the house of representatives.

3—Increase the governor's emergency and contingent fund to $500,000, from which it was reduced by the house.

If the amendments successfully run the senate gauntlet, the bill in its revised form will be returned to the house where it precipitated the most serious partisan break in recent sessions, when the democratic minority walked out.

AMUSEMENTS

Dustin Farnum At Mystic
"While Justice Waits" is the attractive title of a picture produced by William Fox and starring Dustin Farnum, which is at the Mystic today. The story, written by Charles A. and Don Short, is described as a "Western minus a ranch." The scenes are laid in a small mining town and the surrounding hills. The central figures are an outlaw who has joined the band to seek his wife—and a girl whose faith in him is justified after various sensational incidents. Around this pair is developed a story of crime, courage, cowardice and cupidite which should afford one opportunity to an actor of Dustin Farnum's ability, and to a supporting company of the excellence which Fox has undoubtedly supplied.

Gloria Swanson At Princess
Gloria Swanson has the most dramatic role of her career in "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew," her newest Paramount picture, wherein she is a loving wife tricked into a divorce by a jealous husband and torn from her little boy who, was dearer than life to her. Grief-stricken, she plunges into a mad whirl of gaiety, far more sinned against than sinning, only to be rescued by a true love and borne back to happiness. The picture comes to the Princess Theatre today for two days. Conrad Nagel is leading man.

FIFTY-FIFTY CHANCE

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—There is a fifty-fifty chance that anyone becoming married in Marion county will apply for divorce, according to figures on record in the office of county clerk.

Figures for 1922 show that for every two marriage licenses issued in the county, some other couple sought to sever the bonds of matrimony.

"Of course not all the divorces are granted but the judges have a pretty high batting average," said Theodore Kemp, deputy clerk for years in the superior court, where "ties that bind" are broken.

"Then too there are lots of couples separated who never apply for divorce."

Fort Wayne — It took only five days for Mr. and Mrs. James Faulner to discover they could not agree the husband filing suit for divorce and the wife going home.

The difference between ACME PIG MEAL and tankage: ACME PIG MEAL is a complete ration for the pig until 5 months of age, whereas tankage is not a complete ration, but a protein supplement to be fed with corn to supply the protein the corn is lacking. Blaine Meere of Sheridan, Ind., writes: "I took pigs farrowed September 28th, 1921. Commenced feeding ACME PIG MEAL while suckling the sow October the 20th, fed no other rations aside from the sow's milk and ACME PIG MEAL, and the entire lot weighed 71 pounds each when 90 days of age." ASK WHAT YE WILL:—If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.—John 15: 7.

Cleaning Up

Soon the robins will be nesting, and from some source in the community will come a call for a "Clean Up Day" or a "Clean Up Week".

Whoever makes the suggestion will mean well, but he or she really would help the community more by starting the slogan: "Don't call it a 'week'. Let's have a real campaign."

A "day" is merely pathetic, and a "week" is hardly long enough to make even a fair start.

Make it a "campaign!" And keep it up as long as may be necessary to do a real job. That's the first essential of a successful community effort in such work.

The second essential is the public commitment of the thing cleaned up to the new order of things. For example, by the conversion of an unsightly dump into a playground, or the painting of a cleaned up vacant lot with the green of grass and shrubbery or a thrift garden—but, however it be done, "clothe it in the garb of righteousness", and thereafter its cleanliness and orderliness will be respected by everybody.

Allen W. Clark, chairman of the National Clean Up and Paint up Bureau, says eleven years of experience in this work which now is conducted annually in about 7,000 cities and towns in North America, have demonstrated to him both the utility of community clean up effort that are merely "a lick and a promise" and the utility and effectiveness of the real campaign, well planned and properly conducted.

These facts are generally realized most keenly by those city officials who look after the community cleanliness and health, and generally with inadequate budgets. It is impossible for them to co-ordinate their efforts with those of every householder with in a six day period, though the public cooperation that can be enlisted in a real campaign is invaluable to them, and to the community, in the visible and lasting results secured and in the sense of personal responsibility for continuous care taking in these matters that is inculcated by such a campaign.

To "Get the habit" is the thing, and that never can be done in the annual bath of a "day" or a "week" Mr. Clark believes.

Constitution Tinkering

If all of the amendments to the federal constitution that have been proposed, were adopted the country's "fathers" would not recognize the document were they to come back to earth. But fortunately a few sane men have been at the helm and have prevented the wholesome changing of the basic law of the country.

There is now a proposed amendment, however, to prevent defeated members of congress serving after their defeat. It was adopted by the senate Tuesday. The measure provides terms of members of congress begin on the first Monday in January following their election and that the annual meeting date of congress should also become the first Monday in January. The proposed amendment would change the date of the president's inauguration from March 4 to the third Monday in January following the election.

It is difficult to see any excuse for the change. The men who made the constitution of the United States wrought better than they knew. Time has proved that they were endowed with unusual foresight and wisdom to have drawn up so perfect a document that has served the people of the greatest nation in the world so well in times of peace and war.

The policy of "let well enough alone" should prevail. This is no time to be tinkering with the constitution when nothing is to be gained.

Restrictive Apprenticeship

At a recent hearing before the rent commission at Washington, D. C., a contracting builder testified that skilled workmen in the building trades are now getting $12 a day and he expects the wages to go to $15 a day. If this be a true statement of the situation, it demonstrates that something is radically wrong. If this is due to a scarcity of labor in general, it calls for a loosening of the restrictions, on immigration. If it merely means a scarcity of skilled labor, it calls for a loosening of the restrictions on apprenticeship. In the ultimate analysis, the burden of maintaining the cities falls upon the agricultural producers, and the farmers cannot maintain the cities on the basis of a $15 per day wage for the city worker. Moreover, if such wages are to be paid, the farmer will insist upon his right to move to town and share in the wage. That is what the present drift from farm to city means. A wage of $15 per day, or even of $12 per day, is an abnormal and disturbing situation—one that is certain to result, eventually, in a reaction that will be destructive. If restrictive apprenticeship rules in the labor unions are closing the door of opportunity to young men now unskilled and who would like to become skilled, the time will come when a revulsion of public opinion will force the abandonment of such restrictions. The labor unions may be sowing the winds only to reap a whirlwind.

Ban On Public Card Games

Indianapolis, Ind. Feb. 14.—Card games in pool rooms, soft drink parlors, cigarette stands, restaurants and other public business houses were prohibited in Indianapolis by police order today.

"We won't bother private games in homes and clubs," said Mayor Lew Shank, "but the other fellow had better watch out. Even the 'friendly little games' in public places will be stopped, because such games lead to gambling."

In this connection Chief of Police Rickoff said that Indianapolis needs fifty more policemen to bring the city up to the standard maintained by other cities of equal size.

The Human Factor in Industrial Efficiency

DURING the past two years the number of accidents in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization has been reduced 80%. This splendid result has been brought about through intelligent co-operation of employees. The saving in life, efficiency, and money cannot be computed.

The fact that the Company has been able to secure whole-hearted co-operation is the reason for the complete success of the safety plan, and is a very significant fact in connection with all this Company's enterprises.

During the first year after the plan was adopted, over 97% of the safety suggestions made by employees were adopted. Mechanical safeguards were greatly extended, and a system of education was carried on whereby in numerous instances the habits of the employees were changed. Thoughtfulness was substituted for thoughtlessness.

This campaign with its remarkable achievement of 80% decrease in accidents is of definite interest to 30 million people in 10 Middle Western States.

Safety in occupation promotes efficiency of the worker at his task, and makes him a better citizen. The employee who realizes the fact that his safety is being looked after at every turn is free to give his entire attention to his duties.

In any industry the human factor is the key to efficiency. The man who is content, well paid, assured of his future, and safe from injury, may be depended upon to give his best effort to his work. He is more productive; he is more content; he is prouder of his work.

Thus by safeguarding the welfare of the worker, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) takes the initial step towards harmony within the organization, which enables the Company to produce annually a tremendous volume of petroleum products of uniform quality, which are such essential factors in promoting commercial progress and domestic happiness.

FINISH WITH 3 POINT LEAD

The Arlington high school basketball team trounced Charlottesville Tuesday night at Arlington, by the score of 24 to 21. The game was slow, with the exception of the closing minutes when Arlington took a spurt in order to maintain their lead.

The first half ended 8 to 3 in favor of Arlington, and neither team was able to get started right on hitting the basket. Starbuck starred for the visitors with 7 goals, while for Arlington Poer and Nelson were the point makers.

The line-up and summary:
Arlington 24 Charlottesville 21
Nelson F Starbuck
Beckner F Binford
Price C Walker
Hill G Shultz
Lee G Holden
Substitutions, Heifner for Walker
Poer for Hill. Field goals, Starbuck, 7, Heifner, Nelson 5, Beckner, Price 2. Poer 4. Foul goals, Binford 5.

The curtain raiser to the game was played between the eighth grade boys of the Arlington school and the boys of the Main Street Christian church of this city. The score was 20 to 10 in favor of Arlington.

WHO'S GOT ROOMS TO LET

An early appeal is being made for people having vacant bed rooms to let out for tournament visitors, March 2 and 3. About 15 teams will be here, and all of them will need rooms. People are asked to call E. B. Butler, principal of the high school, and list their rooms.

The Rushville high seconds will tackle Everton here Friday night in the curtain raiser, and this should be a good game.

The varsity is hard at work, drilling for the last home game of the season, when they play the Garfield team of Terre Haute here Friday night.

ONE TEAM KICKS IN

The Fairview high school team has disbanded according to word received here. There seems to have been some trouble between the coach and the players, which resulted in the team causing a split-up.

ANOTHER ONE ABOUT READY

Even Newcastle isn't exactly satisfied with their coach this year, according to all reports, and the team up there is about on the verge of throwing up the sponge. Local high school players have hopes that Newcastle will straighten out their tangles, because they are a clean bunch of players and good sports.

WE NEED 'EM BOTH DOWN HERE, ALSO

Shootin' 'em in the News said recently that if Indianapolis had a curfew law, that they would produce better basketball teams. Up at Newcastle the officers are enforcing the law pertaining to the sale of tobacco to minors, which would also help Rushville a great deal in producing better basketball players.

ELWOOD IS ENTERED IN THE TRI-STATE TOURNEY AT CINCINNATI, BUT EVEN AT THAT, MOSCOW COULDN'T BACK OUT.

LET 'EM GO TO RUSSIA

Wouldn't it be funny if Moscow and Warsaw would happen to play each other sometime? It sure sounds Bolshevikic.

A LONG WAY FOR NOTHING

The Terre Haute team is coming a long way for a game, so you Rushville gang ought to make it worth their time, when they play you.

FUN FOR ALL-EXCEPT THE BASKET PLAYERS

Up at Richmond they are advertising a new idea in basketball. Two teams are going to play the game on roller skates. The preliminary announcement calls attention to the fact that much amusement will be derived from witnessing the game. Hittin' 'em can't figure out how some players will be able to stand up, because some of 'em are always on the floor anyway. To make the thing fair, the referee ought to have skates on too.

WE KNOW SOME REFER- EES THAT SHOULD HAVE HAD SKIDS PUT UNDER 'EM LONG AGO.

SAMUEL, DON'T LET 'EM KID YOU

Dear Hittin' 'em:—"We were talking to an inhabitant of Terre Haute, and one who has seen Garfield play many times, and he told us that Garfield has a good team but that he thought that Rushville could play on even terms with them. He had seen Rushville play also. Just whether or not that he is right remains to be seen, but we will always think so until we see different."

Yours, Samuel

WE CAN'T FIGURE IT OUT EITHER, BOYS

Dear Hittin' 'em:—"We can't understand why that every county and local team that Rushville has played and beat this year has it in for Rushville. Maybe they think that we aren't good enough to beat anybody or something and think that they shouldn't have been beaten by such a poor team, but it seems that it is about time that they were finding out that Rushville has got a team after all. Greensburg couldn't get through saying nasty things about Rushville and the team after we beat them. Manilla came out and was positively insulting in their high school paper about the way in which the cup was presented. We can't see what difference it made to them anyhow. The only reason why it was not presented on the floor after the game as advertised, was because the Milroy captain didn't stay to receive it and the authorities couldn't just give it to the first person that came along. These are the worst cases that we think of at present, but there are more that have been nearly as bad."

Breaking up Champion Teams

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 14—Champion ball clubs, in these days of "get rid of 'em when they crack," have a normal duration of only a few years.

More recently the Giants and the Yankees seem to have broken the spell that prevented clubs from repeating as pennant winners.

Requirements of modern baseball necessitate an ever changing policy in personnel as is evidenced by looking over the rosters of the major league clubs.

Not one of the great stars of the 1914 Athletics remain on Connie Mack's payroll. Many of them are still in the game, but they are scattered all over the circuit.

Hank Gowdy is the lone survivor of the champion Brave team of 1914. The champion Boston Red Sox of 1915 have been completely disbanded and of the Philadelphia Nationals, which opposed them in the series that fall, none remain.

Olson, Wheat, Myers and Johnston are the only members of the Brooklyn champions of 1916 who are still drawing pay from Squire Ebbets.

Eddie Collins, Ray Schalk and Red Faber still survive, but all the other stars of the champion White Sox of 1917 have departed. Every one of the pennant winning Giants of the same year have also gone their ways.

Killifer, Hollocher, Deal and O'Farrell still wear the Cub uniforms, but the Cubs of 1918 have scattered. After winning the pennant in 1919, Pat Moran broke up the Cincinnati Reds. With Daubert, Duncan, Roush, Wingo and Luque as a foundation, he has built a new team that is another contender.

The Cleveland champions of 1921 are also under the process of reorganization. Coveleskie, Uhle, Morton, Wamby Sewel, Gardner and Jamieson are the only survivors that Tris Speaker has on his roll.

The New York Yankees have what might be considered a veteran club and the owners will have to keep building it up with new material as they go along.

The Giants, on the other hand, have virtually a young team and McGraw ought to be able to get along for three or four years with the material he now has at his disposal.

Disruption of a team usually results in a wide scattering of the players, but in a few cases many old teammates have found themselves back in company eventually.

The New York Yankees are the most notable example as they are made up almost entirely of groups of players from other clubs.

Baker, Bush, Schang, Pennock and Shawkey of the 1914 Athletics are all banded together again under the banner of Miller Huggins.

Along with the same group who reached New York via Boston are other Red Sox players including Scott, Ruth, Mays, Jones, Hoyt and McNally.

As the players come and go, so also do the managers. John McGraw and Connie Mack hold the record among the majors for long distance in office. Both have financial holdings in their clubs and both can have their jobs as long as they want them.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1820, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a calamity-joker. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a peaky, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

Field Goals, But They Count With 9 Foul Goals

WEBB GIRLS TAKE OPENER

The Moscow high school team again showed their strength over a county team, when they defeated the Webb team Tuesday night at Blue Ridge, by the score of 22 to 15, leading the visiting team at every stage, and holding them to three field goals.

The first half ended 13 to 4. Coleman and B. Hungerford were the main point getters for Moscow, each scoring 3 times from the field. Talbert for Webb caged 2 goals from the field, and 8 from the foul line.

In the preliminary game the Webb girls were victorious over the Moscow girls, 13 to 8.

Moscow leaves Thursday for Cincinnati where they are entered in the Tri-State tourney, which begins in the morning, and in which 52 teams are entered.

MOSCOW TO MEET ELWOOD FRIDAY

Rush County Team Draws Stiff Opponent for Game in Tri-State
Tourney at Cincinnati

MANY TEAMS ARE ENTERED

Martinsville and Elwood are Regarded as Strongest Teams From This State

The Moscow, high school basketball team, which is entered in the Tri-State tourney at Cincinnati, drew a hard opponent for their first game Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock, and will stack up against Elwood, according to the drawing which was made by a neutral board.

The first round for places was drawn and the second round will be drawn later. Many Indiana teams are entered in the list, which includes teams from Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio. Only 10 minute halves will be played in all games excepting the semi-finals and finals which will be fifteen minute halves.

Although Elwood is a strong team, yet if Moscow would enter the game at full speed and play them off their feet at the start, they could win out in the short period allotted for the game.

Cincinnati, Feb. 14—Cincinnati University's seventh annual tri-State basketball tourney for high school teams will open here Friday with fifty-two schools, a record entry list, in line.

Martinsville and Elwood, two of the strongest Hoosier teams, will compete in the tourney and their play will be watched with interest here because of the good showing of Indiana teams in past meets. Martinsville won the tri-State tournament last year.

Indiana teams will play as follows in the first round:

8:30 a. m., Moscow and Elwood.
10:30 a. m., Aurora and Augusta, Ky.

11:30 a. m., Wayne Township High and Batavia, Ohio.

12 noon, Lawrenceburg and Madison.

FIGHT RESULTS

*Boston—Pancho Villa, American flyweight champion, knocked out Frankie Mason, Fort Wayne, in the fifth round.

New York—Jack Bernstein, New York lightweight, won a 12 round decision from Gene Delmont, Memphis.

At Milwaukee—Pinkie Mitchell outpointed Johnny Tillman, in 10 rounds.

At Indianapolis—Eddie Dier knocked out young Carpentier in 3 rounds; Happy Atheron outpointed Joe Cappadore.

Chicago—Jimmy Kelly outpointed Battling Chink in ten rounds.

St. Louis.—Urban Shocker, king pin of the Browns' pitching staff, who signed his name to a 1923 contract last night, was the sixteenth member of Lee Fohl's first string squad to enter the fold.

Secret of His Success

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this country in a recent article said, "Whatever I am and what ever success I have attained in this world I owe it all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration and the greatest helpmate of my life." Health is the first essential of every woman who wants to be a successful wife and to hold the love and admiration of her husband. If a woman finds her energies flagging and dark circles appearing under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, nervousness and "the blues," she should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the medicine which holds the record of helping 98 out of every 100 women who try it. There is nothing better.

Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 14—Max VanOsdol, of Rushville, a member of the Indiana university Glee Club, has just returned from a tour of the state, which was one of the most successful trips ever made by the big state university musical organization. The club consisted of 32 musicians and included a college orchestra and a number of soloists.

The favor with which young VanOsdol and his fellow artists from

Indiana university were received is indicated by the following excerpt from a report of the concert at Madison in the Madison Herald:

"Long before the scheduled hour yesterday afternoon for the performance of the Indiana University Glee Club, the Opera House was packed, every seat on the main floor, balcony and boxes being taken. The club was composed of thirty-two members and each musician entered into the program with great enthusiasm. Every number received the heartiest applause from the vast crowd and the encores were equally well received.

"The program was one of the most delightful entertainments that the American Legion has ever brought to Madison. It is hoped that they will bring more of this sort of entertainment to the public, for the Indiana Glee Club certainly pleased."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell were host and hostess to a prettily appointed dinner party Tuesday evening at their home northeast of the city. The decorations for the table were in keeping with Valentine day and pretty place cards marked the covers for twenty-two guests. Music and bridge were enjoyed following the serving of the repast.

fine of one hundred-million marks levied by the French because of the shooting of two French officers Monday.

Leading bankers of Gelsenkirchen immediately were arrested and the French will attempt to force payment of the fine.

Citizens are planning a deputation to General Degoutte to demand release of the police force, which was arrested en masse yesterday when the invaders were unable to discover the identity of the persons who wounded the officers. It is understood that the French are not likely to release the police, but will hold them for court martial. If any of the German police are found guilty of having participated in the shooting they are liable to the death penalty.

Paris, Feb. 14.—Thirty two persons were arrested by French troops at Gelsenkirchen today it was semi-officially announced. New and more drastic measures are planned at that city if any further disorders occur.

The incident which caused the reprisal of the French was the shooting of two French soldiers Monday and the town's refusal to pay a fine of one hundred million marks.

Hair And Hats Make Or Mar The Beauty Of Women

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for United Press)

New York, N. Y., Feb. 14—There are ways of lessening facial defects and of magnifying the best features of the face by means of appropriate hats and hair-does.

Many women make the mistake of buying the reigning hat style regardless of its becomingness to them. The off-the-face type of hat which has been more or less in vogue for several seasons has been the ruin of so many women. The slender faced woman is absolutely lost in a hat that turns upward from her small narrow face. She needs a moderately wide hat that casts soft shadows over her face, a hat of the mushroom variety. The girl with the up-turned nose or with the large imperfect nose demands a hat with a wide front brim to minimize the imperfections of her profile.

How often we see a large woman with an over developed chin and a large mouth, wearing one of those small turbans pulled low over her best features—her eyes! Not only does she hide the best part of her face but she deliberately calls attention to the lower part of her face. She is of the type that would look better in a hat that turns slightly of the brow, leaving a halo about her face. By wearing a wider hat she lessens the appearance of the width of her lower face.

The stout face can wear the hair more tightly confined than the long slender featured face. That is one reason so many girls who were quite uninteresting-looking in long hair blossomed out into such beauties after a permanently waved fluffy "bob". Uneven features demand that the hair be soft and fluffy about the face. Only the girl who is sure of her profile should attempt the plain tight hair-do.

In studying our weak and our strong points how many of us really pay attention to the minor things that go to make one a charming personality? I read recently that no woman could consider herself a charming individual who had unclean fingernails. This goes beyond my point, but it expresses my meaning nevertheless. It's the little things that one should pay attention to if one wishes to be popular with one's friends.

Take color, for instance. Now many dark eyed women effect red, simply because they think it looks Spanish or vampish when really they are too old and too unattractive to attempt such a violent color.

There are no set rules of color for blonds, mediums and brunettes to follow. They must use their heads. Some brown-eyed people look wonderful in brown, while others are far more attractive in black, blues or vivid colors. To wear brown well, the brown eyed girl must have some glint of red in her hair. Even the incomparable Rodolph Valentino, with his glorious brown eyes and his dark hair, admits that brown is not his color. His suits are usually gray, blue or black but never brown.

I know a pale sandy haired woman who was told many years ago that lavender was her color. She is still inflicting it upon us, in spite of the fact that her sandy tresses are streaked with gray. Probably when she is gray enough, lavender will be becoming to her.

Never buy material for a new gown unless you take several color samples home and test them out before your own mirror.

The low neck which extends slightly off the shoulder has been revived by Lanvin who has gone in for gowns of the medieval type. This neckline is not confined to the evening gown, but is used on many of his afternoon frocks of dark materials.

feet and will have a seating capacity of approximately 350 people. The ceiling will be fifteen feet high and the basketball court will be 35 by 65 feet.

An incline will be constructed at the rear of the building leading to an entrance to the gymnasium so that the basketball court may also be used for exhibition rooms at farmers' shows and for a stock judging pavilion.

The construction will be such that the auditorium may be converted into class rooms and a high school assembly and at the same time be used as an auditorium, if it is ever decided to add a high school. There will be windows at both ends of the auditorium to provide ample light.

There will be a corridor ten feet wide running east and west through the building and dividing the classrooms from the auditorium. There will be east and west entrances at the ends of the corridor where school children will enter and leave the building. The main entrance is on the south, opening into a seven-foot hall.

There will be a drive around the building so that pupils may enter and leave the school hacks on school property and thus avoid the danger of accidents which might result if the school hacks stopped in front of the building on the main road.

The building will stand thirty feet above the ground and the first floor will be several feet above the ground to permit windows in the basement. The first floor rooms will have thirteen-foot ceilings. The structure will be semi-fireproof. It will be heated with a vapor heating system and lighted with a private electric lighting system.

efforts to establish a full time health officer in every county in Indiana and reorganize the state board of health, J. N. Hurty, formerly secretary of the board and representative from Marion county, introduced another bill in the house. It omits the health officer provision which defeated his first bill, but carries other provisions of the previous measure.

Hammering at the absent voter's law continued when Representative Leveron introduced a bill to repeal the law. A similar bill recently failed to pass the senate because of a lack of a constitutional majority.

Foes of the "blue Memorial day" bill turned toward Governor McCray today as a last resort to prevent prohibition of the annual 500-mile automobile races on the Indianapolis motor speedway.

Surprised by unexpected strength of the measure in a test vote by the state house of representatives late yesterday, its opponents were ready to admit that their fight appeared almost hopeless.

"I have not read the bill and until I read it, I cannot say whether I will sign it," Governor McCray said. The bill would bar all commercialized sporting events on Memorial Day. It has passed the senate and is ready for the final consideration in the house. An effort to attach vitiating amendments in the house failed 49 to 31.

If the measure is approved by the house, it will be sent to the governor. He can accept or reject it within ten days after it goes to his office. After that, however, the bill would become a law without his signature and the race scheduled for May 31 this year would have to be annulled.

An extra heavy seat sale has already started for the race, according to "Pop" Meyers, secretary and general manager of the speedway. Tickets have been ordered from far away points.

Both factions of the American Legion—those favoring and those opposed to the measure—were in the house of representatives when it was handed down for second reading. The stage was all set. A number of spectators lined the corridor railing.

In rapid fire order various amendments were offered and just as rapidly rejected.

THE HOME GARDEN

What is Home without a Garden?

TWO ROADS TO SUCCESSION CROPS

In making up a vegetable seed list, remember there are two ways of producing a succession of crops. One is by successive plantings of your favorite variety. Another is by planting at the same time varieties which will mature successively. In general, successive plantings are preferred where space is limited, and so the quickest growing varieties will produce greatest results. But if one has plenty of space, then a combination of the two systems is ideal, as it permits each vegetable to be treated in the way most suitable for it.

The earliest variety of sweet corn matures in about 55 days, while the latest takes 90 days. A succession may thus be sown May 1 which will produce a harvest from mid-June until mid-August. But those who consider Golden Bantam as the finest home garden variety will prefer to sow it every two weeks, and thus produce the succession crops.

Peas take from 45 days (for the smooth seeded Alaska) to 75 days to mature; and the tall growing types, which bear most heavily and are excellent in flavor, are later than the dwarf. So planting of different varieties for succession in crop promises a heavier yield, and no sacrifice in quality.

Radishes may be grown either way, and one should be guided by taste; as many do not care for the long types which stand the summer heat; but prefer many sowings of the milder globe and olive sorts. For a lettuce succession; on the other hand, one must choose different varieties. Start with a leaf or loose heading variety, sown indoors at the earliest moment and harvested when half grown, using the plants which are thinned out; at the same time set out plants of a butter-head variety which has been started indoors and will mature heads before hot weather begins. And for later harvest sow crisp head and cos lettuce.

When sowing in late summer for a fall harvest, do not sow late maturing varieties. The early varieties are used again for the fall crop. Late varieties are sown in the spring or early summer, as they take the season to reach maturity.

These suggestions are given to help one in selecting a planting list. The more complete information about the different varieties which is given in seed catalogs should be studied in the light of these suggestions, which are necessarily incomplete.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 12.

Inquiries received by the Bureau of Internal Revenue indicate a mistaken impression in the minds of many taxpayers concerning deductions from gross income for personal expenses. Deductions for living or family expenses, such as amounts expended for food, clothing, education of children, rent for a dwelling, hire of domestic servants and similar items for the upkeep of a home are expressly disallowed by the revenue act.

A storekeeper may not clothe himself and family with goods taken from the store and deduct the cost of the clothing as a business expense. A restaurant keeper or hotel proprietor should make an allowance for meals for himself and family.

The same rule applies to a physician who conducts a sanitarium. A shoemaker who dwells over his place of business should deduct as a business expense the rental only of the portion of the building used for business. A farmer may deduct as a business expense wages paid a farm hand but not those of domestic employed in his household.

A physician who maintains an office in a rented home may deduct the proportion of such rent properly chargeable to the portion used for professional purposes. If, however, he maintains an office elsewhere and incidentally receives patients at his home, he is not entitled to deduct any part of the rent for his residence as a business expense. If a physician owns the home in which he has his office no deduction for rent allowed.

The same general rulings in regard to deductions for home and office expense apply to other professional men.

BILL PENDING TO PROTECT MUSSELS

Would Create A Closed Season For
Small Varieties Of Fish Not
Now Protected

VALUABLE FOR BUTTONS

Streams Are Being Looted Of Mus-
sels By Men Of Other States
Who Scoop Them Up By Tons

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—A bill pending in the legislature which would create a closed season for all varieties of fish would help save valuable mussels in Indiana streams, according to George Mannfeld, director of the division of fish and game in the department of conservation.

Mannfeld said today that the streams are being looted of the mussels by men from other states, who come into Indiana and scoop them up by the ton. Indiana now has no law protecting the mussels and other states have stringent laws, Mannfeld said.

The men from other states make money from their operations, Mannfeld said. Mussels are valuable in making buttons and occasionally they yield valuable pearls.

There is a factory at Shoals, Ind., for making buttons but many of the shells are shipped to Muskatine, Iowa where one of the largest button factories in the world is located.

The mussel hunters that invade Indiana streams, scoop up the shells from the stream beds and put them into boats. Then they take the meat from the inside and bait trout lines.

The bill which provides a closed season for fish was presented by Representative Collins. The season would be closed from April 13 to June 16.

It carries a fine of $10 to $50 and ten days imprisonment making a separate offense for every fish caught.

Other provisions of the bill are: Terminating all licenses to hunt and fish on December 31 of each year. Outstanding licenses to be good for the term for which they were issued.

Raising the price of non-resident fishing licenses to $2.25; reducing non-resident hunting licenses to $10.50. (Present prices are: Non-resident fishing licenses $1.00; non-resident hunting license, $15.50.)

Establishing a license, both resident and non-resident, to trap; resident license $2.25; non-resident $15.50; resident trapping license to carry also the privilege to hunt and fish.

Placing a length of 5-inches on bluegills and rockbass (goggleeye) and reducing the daily catch on black bass to 10 per day; bluegills, crappie and rock bass each to 25 a day. No more than 50 fish of the above species to be held in possession by anyone after fishing two days or more.

Fishing without license limited to one's own county.

No license needed by persons under 16-years of age, resident owners of land and their tenants, honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the civil war, and the wife of a man who has a license to fish.

Making Indiana laws relating to shooting ducks and other migratory birds conform to the regulations of the federal government.

Establishing a closed season on rabbits from January 15 to October 1 with a provision that bona fide owners of lands or their tenants may kill them at any time when found doing damage to their property.

Sulphur Soothes Ugly, Itching Skin

The First Application Makes Skin
Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declared a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.

PLANS APPROVED FOR NEW BUILDING

Jackson Township Officials Will Advertise For Bids To Erect One-Story Grade School

NOT TO COST OVER $49,000

Basement Will Contain Gymnasium
And First Floor Class Rooms
And Large Auditorium

A modern consolidated school building of brick and hollow tile construction, one story high with a basement and gymnasium that may be used for stock shows, will be erected in Jackson township during the spring and summer at a cost not to exceed $49,000, it became known today when the township trustee, Henry W. Beckner, and the township advisory board approved the plans for the structure.

The township officials will advertise for bids within twenty-five days and will attempt to get the construction under way early in the spring so that the building may be completed and ready for use by the opening of school next fall.

The advisory board which is composed of Jesse A. Leisure, Chester M. Cross and Oliver M. Siler, together with the trustee, conferred with the architect, Karl P. Henkle of Connersville, who drew the plans, at A. L. Gary's office today.

There are approximately one hundred pupils in Jackson township, who have been transported to the Rushville city schools this year on account of the two small buildings in the township being condemned by the state board of health as unfit for use.

Patrons of the Jackson township schools have been dissatisfied with the arrangements, preferring to have a school of their own.

The new building will be erected on the site on the Wilkinson farm, located on the Knichtstown pike, which was condemned by Alva Newhouse, trustee, who retired January 1 by court procedure. An effort made by Mr. Newhouse to erect a consolidated school building during his term of office failed when a remonstrance against the bond issue was sustained by the state board of tax commissioners.

The present township officials feel that a grade building will meet the needs of the township for the present as there are not enough high school pupils to warrant the opening of a high school but the building will be made large enough so that if the need for a high school ever arises, the building will serve the purpose. The graduates of the Jackson township grades will continue to attend the Rushville high school unless it is found some time in the future that Jackson township can operate a high school cheaper than the pupils can be sent to another township.

The new building will have outside dimensions of 83 by 118 feet and will face the south. The first floor will consist of four class rooms each large enough to accommodate thirty-seven pupils, and an auditorium in the rear, 35 by 96 feet that will accommodate approximately six hundred people.

A stage 20 by 35 feet will be erected in one end of the auditorium. In the basement will be girls' and boys' toilets, showers, manual training and agricultural department and sewing and cooking rooms for the domestic science classes. The trustee's storage room and gymnasium will also be located in the basement.

The gymnasium will be 35 by 80

DWELLING HOUSE DAMAGED

Defective Flue Sets Roof on Fire, Causing $25 Loss

A dwelling house occupied by Charley Levi, 211 North Palo Alto Street, was damaged by fire. Quick action by the fire department, kept the loss to a minimum, and chemicals extinguished the blaze. The loss, which is estimated at $25, was confined solely to the building, which is owned by Thomas Sullivan. On account of the high wind, a small fire today would soon spread and get beyond control.

The alarm this morning was turned in at 7:50 o'clock from box 34, corner Second and Jackson streets.

CASE SET FOR TRIAL TODAY IS POSTPONED

Illness of One of Main Witnesses Responsible For Hearing Being Called Off

JUDGE FOR CLEVENGER CASE

The case of Cook against Hinds, scheduled for trial in the circuit court today before a jury, was postponed when a principal witness was reported to be sick, and the jury, which had been previously called for today, was notified not to report.

Court matters this morning were being taken up in an ante-room of the court room, because it was impossible to heat in the court room proper on account of the strong wind. A demurrer to the complaint of Pat Carroll against the City of Rushville, was being argued this morning.

In the case of the state against Fred Clevenger, charged with subornation of perjury, the defense filed a motion for a change of judge, which was granted, and by agreement of the attorneys, Judge Fred Gause of Newcastle was decided upon to try the case.

The case was originally set for February 21, but the date now will be changed, and will be optional with the judge-elect.

CHARITY CARD PARTY TO FOLLOW NEW PLAN

No Invitations Will be Issued, But Tables May be Reserved by Individuals or Groups

MILK LUNCH FUND BENEFIT

A new plan was announced today for the charity card party which will be given by the Psi Iota Xi sorority at the Elks club Wednesday afternoon, February 21, at 2:30 o'clock, for the benefit of the school milk lunch fund, which is administered by the Rushville Woman's Council. Bridge and Five Hundred will be played and the admission will be fifty cents.

No invitations will be issued and reservations may be made by calling any of the following members of the sorority: Mrs. Floyd Kirklin, phone 1821; Mrs. Cullen Sexton, phone 2352; or Miss Mary L. Wyatt, phone 1261.

In making reservations, it is urged that those who expect to attend state if they wish to be placed at a certain table, or if they have arranged for a table, to state with whom they expect to play. The play will be by tables instead of progressing through the room, but if a crowd should desire to reserve a number of tables, they may progress among themselves.

It is urgently requested that reservations be made at once so that the sorority may know how many to expect. The prizes will be donated by the patronesses and other friends of the sorority.

MRS. E. A. LEE IMPROVES

Mrs. E. A. Lee, who has been seriously ill at her home in West First street, was reported to be better today.

CAPACITY CROWDS ATTEND INSTITUTE

Classes in all Departments Full of Exhibits at Farmers Meeting in Carthage Today

COMMUNITY DINNER AT NOON

George I. Christie, Head of Purdue Extension Department, Compliments Community Highly

Capacity crowds were in attendance at the Ripley township farmers institute, which opened at the Carthage Auditorium Tuesday evening and continued through today. The principal feature of the institute was an address at the opening session by George I. Christie, head of the extension division of Purdue university.

There was a large list of entries in the corn, potato and poultry shows, as well as the ladies department, where there were prizes for yeast and salt rising bread, white layer, devil's food and solid cake of any variety, doughnuts, butter, eggs, and nut bread. Many entries were also listed in the girl's department.

The exhibits were made in the gymnasium on the top floor of the building and the institute sessions were held in the auditorium of the building. A community dinner was served today noon in the basement of the building, which is specially equipped for such purposes.

The main addresses were made today by Mrs. Lillian Pierce and William Madigan. Mrs. Pierce spoke this morning on "Rural Community Life and Its Possibilities" and this afternoon on "The Woman of the Hour". Mr. Madigan's subject this morning was "Farm Management" and this afternoon it was "Production of Pork".

Entertainment features on the program today consisted of music by the Carthage community orchestra, vocal selections by the high school glee club and a reading by Mrs. Eldon Outland.

The ten ears of corn that won the sweepstakes prize for the best ten ears, any color, at the Rush county corn show the first of this month, were on exhibit at the show. The corn was raised by Chase Hiner of Center township.

The auditorium was filled to the doors when Prof. Christie spoke last night. He discussed farming as an occupation and compared present methods of tilling the soil with those of long ago. He said he was amazed at the progress made by farmers when they did not have the improvements they enjoy today.

Mr. Christie emphasized the importance of using Indiana products and of placing Indiana in the front ranks of the states. He urged loyalty to Indiana by buying Indiana articles whenever possible.

Mr. Christie complimented Carthage highly on the Auditorium because of the opportunity it affords of holding community gatherings such as the institute. He stated that few towns the size of Carthage could boast of a building so well equipped that met the needs of the community.

The opening program began with music by the community orchestra, which was followed with a selection by the high school glee club. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Arthur Jean, pastor of the Fletcher M. E. church at Carthage. Following a solo by Miss Freda McGeorge, Miss Grace Overman gave three readings that were very much appreciated. The program closed with a vocal duet by Mrs. Rowland Morgan and Miss Lavinia Sears, Mrs. Harold Watts providing the accompaniment.

NO NEW CASES REPORTED

The smallpox situation in Orange is improving, according to reports from that vicinity this morning. No new cases of the epidemic has been reported during the last few weeks and those who have been afflicted are improving. All the residents of the vicinity have been vaccinated and it is hoped that the situation will continue to improve.

HOW TEACHER CAN BUILD CHARACTER

Subject Discussed by A. M. Taylor at Regular Meeting of Kiwanis Club Today Noon

LINCOLN AS AN EXAMPLE

Speaker Draws Distinction Between Educated and Learned Man—Month's Program on Education

Pursuing its program on the topic of "Education" for this month, the Kiwanis club heard an address today noon at the regular luncheon at the Social club by A. M. Taylor, former principal and present instructor in mathematics in the Rushville high school.

Mr. Taylor's theme was "General Education." The subject for the first meeting in February was "Kiwanis Education," which was discussed by J. T. Arbuckle, a district trustee in the Indiana Kiwanis organization. The subject "Vocational Education" will be discussed next Tuesday by Carl Miller, vocational teacher in the Walker township schools.

Mr. Taylor, in his talk today, showed the kinship between the motto of the Kiwanis club, "We Build," and the watchword of the true teacher, "Building Character."

The speaker pointed out the ways in which character may be built by the teacher. He asserted that it could be done in mathematics by the pupil being made stronger through doing of a hard problem.

Mr. Taylor also referred to other studies in showing how the teacher can be a character builder.

The high school teacher also drew a distinction between the learned man and the educated man. He pointed to Abraham Lincoln as the truly educated man because he could apply all that he knew. The speaker said that the learned man could not put into practice what he knows.

M. S. Keys of Frankfort, Ind., and George F. Redelman of Greensburg were visitors at the meeting today.

ZERO TEMPERATURE FAILS TO ARRIVE

Colder Weather Prevails Today, However, and is Accentuated By High Northwest Winds

COLD WAVE MOVES EASTWARD

Although the weather man missed his guess on the zero temperature this morning, he ran true to form in predicting colder weather during the night, and with high northwest winds which prevailed throughout last night and today.

The indications are that near zero to ten degrees above will be reached during tonight, and that Thursday will be fair and cold. The lowest reached here last night was reported at 15 degrees above zero by Elwood Kirkwood. At no time during the day did the mercury advance to more than 20 degrees, and it was expected that it would take a downward trend late this afternoon.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Transportation lines throughout the northwest were paralyzed today as a result of the worst blizzard of the year which was sweeping eastward.

Trains were marooned in snow drifts in Minnesota, Northern Wisconsin, Montana and the Dakotas. Temperatures in the middle west fell rapidly as the storm swept eastward. It was 5 degrees below zero in Chicago.

The weather bureau predicted it would be 10 below by Thursday morning, a record low for the winter. Cold wave warnings were issued for Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, Pennsylvania and New York.

HOPE TO PASS BILL TODAY

Washington, Feb. 14.—Hoping to get the British funding bill through the senate tonight, administration leaders were ready today to remain in session for twelve hours or more to accomplish the object.

RUSHVILLE MAN ARRESTED

Harry Rainey Accused Of Violating Liquor Laws At Newcastle

(Special to the Daily Republican.) Newcastle, Ind., Feb. 14.—Two men were arrested here last night by officers and placed in jail on a charge of violating the prohibition laws. The men arrested gave their names as Harry Rainey of Rushville and Edgar Felner of Muncie.

According to the officers, the two men were riding in an automobile in which a quantity of liquor was found. The two were placed in jail, and were to be given a hearing this afternoon at two o'clock in court.

FRANCE MAKES BID FOR BRITISH HELP

Refusal to Permit Troop-Guarded Trains in English Zone Hampers French Plan in Ruhr

ALLIED SPLIT AIDS GERMANY

Tension in Occupied Area Increases With Arrest of 32 When City Refuses to Pay Fine

(By United Press)

France made another bid for British assistance in the economic war against Germany today. Minister of public works LeTroquer went to London to ask Britain to let fuel trains guarded by French troops, pass through the British zone on the Rhine.

Britain's refusal to permit troops—manned trains to cross the Cologne zone has seriously hampered the French in their plan to cut off the Ruhr from unoccupied Germany, seize coal at the pitheads and move it in heavy guarded trains, which also will carry hostages, up the Rhine to the Lorraine smelters.

Premier Bonar Law has indicated his government opposes such transport and may refuse the French request.

Germany viewed with favor the split in the entente and renewed bitter protests against the French and Belgian plan of isolating the Ruhr and preventing export of steel and coal.

A leading member of the Reichstag declared today the French have reintroduced vasalism, into Germany turned school children into the streets, established red light districts in occupied towns and are using black troops.

Tension in the Ruhr increased, dangerously close to the breaking point at Essen, Gelsenkirchen and Recklinghausen. Thirty-two arrests, including prominent bankers, were made at Gelsenkirchen following the city's refusal to pay a fine of 100,000 marks levied for the shooting of two French officers. The city's entire police force is under arrest and will be tried by court martial.

Brussels Feb. 14.—Telephonic communications between Belgium and Germany was cut off today.

London Feb. 14.—A dispatch to the Times from Strasbourg says that Herr Schworer, sub-prefect of Offenburg, has been arrested for refusal to obey the French.

Essen, Feb. 14.—The city of Gelsenkirchen today refused to pay a

SERIES OF FIRES TAKE A HEAVY TOLL IN LIVES

(By United Press)

Serious fires causing heavy losses of property and taking a toll of several lives, were reported today, accompanying the cold wave. Fires were reported as follows:

Omaha, Nebraska, one million dollars damage to the Armour Packing Company plant.

Pine City, Minnesota, four children burned to death when fire destroyed their home.

Joplin, Mo., fireman killed in church fire.

Montreal church destroyed by fire.

Senate Passes Bill Prohibiting Cities And Towns From Adopting Such Ordinances

NEW BILLS INTRODUCED

Foes Of "Blue Memorial Day" Bill Turn To Governor As Last Resort To Prevent Passage

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—The Indiana state debt amounts to $2,165,000, according to a statement made to the senate today by Robert Bracken, auditor of state, in compliance with a senate resolution demanding a statement of the financial conditions of Indiana. Bracken included a list of state depositories and gave the amount deposited in each. The statement showed that Indiana has $8,105,816.52 in the depositories from the various state funds.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—Endorsement of the public service commission was indicated in the senate today when it refused to deny the commission's authority and voted to postpone indefinitely a bill to place Fort Wayne municipalities under the control of the board of works there. The bill was introduced by Senator Hartzell. The vote on the measure was 30 to 13 and was made on a motion of Senator Swain to postpone indefinitely further consideration.

Daylight saving in Indiana received a death blow in the senate which passed Senator Hodges bill prohibiting city and towns from adopting daylight saving ordinances. The vote was 32 to 4. The measure now goes to the house of representatives for further action.

A measure to provide that motor bus lines be operated under certificates of convenience issued by the public service commission, that the rates be fixed by the commission and that the busses be taxed on the basis of mileage travelled and passengers carried, was introduced by Representative Eikhoff.

A measure abolishing the department of Conservation failed when the house approved the report of the committee on natural resources recommending indefinite postponement of a bill introduced by Representative Peterson.

WILL TRY TO ADD TWO MILLIONS TO MEASURE

Administration Forces in Senate Will Attempt to Tack Items on Appropriation Bill

WAS REDUCED IN THE HOUSE

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—Administration forces in the state senate today prepared for a determined effort to add approximately two million dollars to the pending sixteen million dollar appropriation bill.

It was learned authoritatively that amendments to be attached to the bill with the sanction of enough members of the majority to assure their adoption are:

1.—One million dollars for construction of more building at Purdue University, the Muncie State Normal school, the soldiers home at Lafayette and the Riley hospital in Indianapolis.

2.—Restore the appropriation for completing the reformatory at Pendleton to two million dollars as requested by Governor McCray. It was reduced to $1,500,000 by the house of representatives.

3.—Increase the governor's emergency and contingent fund to $500,000, from which it was reduced by the house.

If the amendments successfully run the senate gauntlet, the bill in its revised form will be returned to the house where it precipitated the most serious partisan break in recent sessions, when the democratic minority walked out.

AMUSEMENTS

Dustin Farnum At Mystic
"While Justice Waits" is the attractive title of a picture produced by William Fox and starring Dustin Farnum, which is at the Mystic today. The story, written by Charles A. and Don Short, is described as a "Western minus a ranch." The scenes are laid in a small mining town and the surrounding hills. The central figures are an outlaw who has joined the band to seek his wife—and a girl whose faith in him is justified after various sensational incidents. Around this pair is developed a story of crime, courage, cowardice and cupid which should afford one opportunity to an actor of Dustin Farnum's ability, and to a supporting company of the excellence which Fox has undoubtedly supplied.

Gloria Swanson At Princess
Gloria Swanson has the most dramatic role of her career in "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew," her newest Paramount picture, wherein she is a loving wife tricked into a divorce by a jealous husband and torn from her little boy who was dearer than life to her. Grief-stricken, she plunges into a mad whirl of gaiety, far more sinned against than sinning, only to be rescued by a true love and borne back to happiness. The picture comes to the Princess Theatre today for two days. Conrad Nagel is leading man.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank the relatives, neighbors, and friends for their kindness and sympathy shown me during the sickness and at the death of my husband, John Eckels, also for the beautiful floral offerings, the singers, Rev. Hargett, Mr. Wyatt, the G. A. R., W. R. C. and D. A. R.

TO DISCUSS FIRE LOSSES

Meeting Of Indiana Sanitary And Water Supply Association Opens

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—Reduction of the nation's fire losses through closer co-operation between fire departments and water companies of Indiana will be discussed at the sixteenth annual meeting of the Indiana Sanitary and Water Supply Association which opened here today.

Plans will be made to complete the organization of the Indiana Fire Protection Association composed of water company and fire prevention officials.

Officials of every city in the state have been invited to the meeting.

EXAMINATION JULY 16-20

For Men Seeking 1st Lieutenantcy In Medical Corps

Columbus, O., Feb. 14.—Indiana men who desire to qualify for the position of first lieutenant in the medical corps of the United States army can have their fling in examinations to be conducted from July 16 to 20, according to announcement today from headquarters of the fifth army corps area at Fort Hayes, near here.

The area includes Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Kentucky.

Colonel C. D. Rhodes, chief of staff, said applicants should notify the commanding general at Fort Hayes.

One examination will be conducted at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all our neighbors and friends for their kindness during the recent illness.

Tut-Ankh-Amen On Broadway

New York, Feb. 14.—The feminine modes of Tut-Ankh-Amen's day are to be copied extensively for the modern ball and drawing room.

Following exhibition of Egyptian styles of 3,000 years ago in Broadway and Fifth Avenue windows, the International Silk Show will today commission Miss Hazel Staughter, dress designer to go to Egypt and study the ancient creations discovered in connection with excavation of the Pharaoh's tomb at Luxor.

According to fashion authorities any Pharaoh would feel at home at American social functions this spring and summer. The creations now displayed in ultra-fashionable shops found in the valley of the kings. Painted silks, reptile hair ornaments and carved beads are among exhibits.

FIFTY-FIFTY CHANCE

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—There is a fifty-fifty chance that anyone becoming married in Marion county will apply for divorce, according to figures on record in the office of county clerk.

Figures for 1922 show that for every two marriage licenses issued in the county, some other couple sought to sever the bonds of matrimony.

"Of course not all the divorces are granted but the judges have a pretty high batting average," said Theodore Kemp, deputy clerk for years in the superior court, where "ties that bind" are broken.

"Then for there are lots of couples separated who never apply for divorce."

Fort Wayne — It took only five days for Mr. and Mrs. James Faulner to discover they could not agree the husband filing suit for divorce and the wife going home.

Acme Pig Meal

The difference between ACME PIG MEAL and tankage: ACME PIG MEAL is a complete ration for the pig until 5 months of age, whereas tankage is not a complete ration, but a protein supplement to be fed with corn to supply the protein the corn is lacking. Blaine Moore of Sheridan, Ind., writes: "I took pigs farrowed September 28th, 1921. Commenced feeding ACME PIG MEAL while suckling the sow October the 20th, fed no other rations aside from the sow's milk and ACME PIG MEAL, and the entire lot weighed 71 pounds each when 90 days of age." ASK WHAT YE WILL.—If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.—John 15: 7.

Cleaning Up

Soon the robins will be nesting, and from some source in the community will come a call for a "Clean Up Day" or a "Clean Up Week".

Whoever makes the suggestion will mean well, but he or she really will help the community more by starting the slogan: "Don't call it a 'week'. Let's have a real campaign."

A "day" is merely pathetic, and a "week" is hardly long enough to make even a fair start.

Make it a "campaign!" And keep it up as long as may be necessary to do a real job. That's the first essential of a successful community effort in such work.

The second essential is the public commitment of the thing cleaned up to the new order of things. For example, by the conversion of an unsightly dump into a playground, or the painting of a cleaned up vacant lot with the green of grass and shrubbery or a thrift garden—but, however it be done, "clothe it in the garb of righteousness", and thereafter its cleanliness and orderliness will be respected by everybody.

Allen W. Clark, chairman of the National Clean Up and Paint up Bureau, says eleven years of experience in this work which now is conducted annually in about 7,000 cities and towns in North America, have demonstrated to him both the utility of community clean up effort that are merely "a liek and a promise" and the utility and effectiveness of the real campaign, well planned and properly conducted.

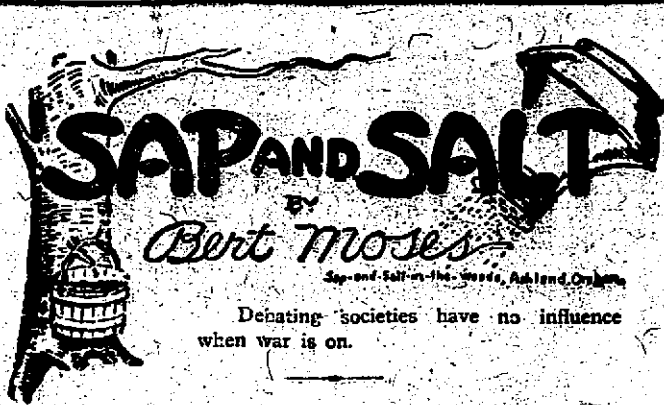

These facts are generally realized most keenly by those city officials who look after the community cleanliness and health, and generally with inadequate budgets. It is impossible for them to co-ordinate their efforts with those of every household with in a six day period, though the public cooperation that can be enlisted in a real campaign is invaluable to them, and to the community, in the visible and lasting results secured and in the sense of personal responsibility for continuous care taking in these matters that is inculcated by such a campaign.

To "Get the habit" is the thing, and that never can be done in the annual bath of a "day" or a "week" Mr. Clark believes.

Constitution Tinkering

If all of the amendments to the federal constitution that have been proposed, were adopted the country's "fathers" would not recognize the document were they to come back to earth. But fortunately a few sane men have been at the helm and have prevented the wholesome changing of the basic law of the country.

There is now a proposed amendment, however, to prevent defeated members of congress serving after their defeat. It was adopted by the senate Tuesday. The measure provides terms of members of congress begin on the first Monday in January following their election and that the annual meeting date of congress should also become the first Monday in January. The proposed amendment would change the date of the president's inauguration from March 4 to the third Monday in January following the election.

It is difficult to see any excuse for the change. The men who made the constitution of the United States wrought better than they knew. Time has proved that they were endowed with unusual foresight and wisdom to have drawn up so perfect a document that has served the people of the greatest nation in the world so well in times of peace and war.

The policy of "let well enough alone" should prevail. This is no time to be tinkering with the constitution when nothing is to be gained.

Restrictive Apprenticeship

At a recent hearing before the rent commission at Washington, D. C., a contracting builder testified that skilled workmen in the building trades are now getting $12 a day and he expects the wages to go to $15 a day. If this be a true statement of the situation, it demonstrates that something is radically wrong. If this is due to a scarcity of labor in general, it calls for a loosening of the restrictions, on immigration. If it merely means a scarcity of skilled labor, it calls for a loosening of the restrictions on apprenticeship. In the ultimate analysis, the burden of maintaining the cities falls upon the agricultural producers, and the farmers cannot maintain the cities on the basis of a $15 per day wage for the city worker. Moreover, if such wages are to be paid, the farmer will insist upon his right to move to town and share in the wage. That is what the present drift from farm to city means. A wage of $15 per day, or even of $12 per day, is an abnormal and disturbing situation—one that is certain to result, eventually, in a reaction that will be destructive. If restrictive apprenticeship rules in the labor unions are closing the door of opportunity to young men now unskilled and who would like to become skilled, the time will come when a revision of public opinion will force the abandonment of such restrictions. The labor unions may be sowing to the winds only to reap a whirlwind.

Ban On Public Card Games

Indianapolis, Ind. Feb. 14.—Card games in pool rooms, soft drink parlors, cigarette stands, restaurants and other public business houses were prohibited in Indianapolis by police order today.

"We won't bother private games in homes and clubs," said Mayor Lew Shank, "but the other fellow had better watch out. Even the 'friendly little games' in public places will be stopped, because such games lead to gambling."

In this connection Chief of Police Rickoff said that Indianapolis needs fifty more policemen to bring the city up to the standard maintained by other cities of equal size.

The Human Factor in Industrial Efficiency

DURING the past two years the number of accidents in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization has been reduced 80%. This splendid result has been brought about through intelligent co-operation of employees. The saving in life, efficiency, and money cannot be computed.

The fact that the Company has been able to secure whole-hearted co-operation is the reason for the complete success of the safety plan, and is a very significant fact in connection with all this Company's enterprises.

During the first year after the plan was adopted, over 97% of the safety suggestions made by employees were adopted. Mechanical safeguards were greatly extended, and a system of education was carried on whereby in numerous instances the habits of the employees were changed. Thoughtfulness was substituted for thoughtlessness.

This campaign with its remarkable achievement of 80% decrease in accidents is of definite interest to 30 million people in 10 Middle Western States.

Safety in occupation promotes efficiency of the worker at his task, and makes him a better citizen. The employee who realizes the fact that his safety is being looked after at every turn is free to give his entire attention to his duties.

In any industry the human factor is the key to efficiency. The man who is content, well paid, assured of his future, and safe from injury, may be depended upon to give his best effort to his work. He is more productive; he is more content; he is prouder of his work.

Thus by safeguarding the welfare of the worker, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) takes the initial step towards harmony within the organization, which enables the Company to produce annually a tremendous volume of petroleum products of uniform quality, which are such essential factors in promoting commercial progress and domestic happiness.

FINISH WITH 3 POINT LEAD

The Arlington high school basketball team trounced Charlottesville Tuesday night at Arlington, by the score of 24 to 21. The game was slow, with the exception of the closing minutes when Arlington took a spurt in order to maintain their lead.

The first half ended 8 to 3 in favor of Arlington, and neither team was able to get started right on hitting the basket. Starbuck starred for the visitors with 7 goals, while for Arlington Poer and Nelson were the point makers.

The line-up and summary:
Arlington 24 Charlottesville 21
Nelson F Starbuck 21
Beckner F Binford 19
Price C Walker 15
Hill G Shultz 10
Lee G Holden 10
Substitutions, Heifner for Walker Poer for Hill. Field goals, Starbuck, 7; Heifner, Nelson 5; Beckner, Price 2; Poer 4. Foul goals, Binford 5.
The curtain raiser to the game was played between the eighth grade boys of the Arlington school and the boys of the Main Street Christian church of this city. The score was 20 to 10 in favor of Arlington.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells; This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1875, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a cadaverous-looking. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a healthy, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

WHO'S GOT ROOMS TO LET

An early appeal is being made for people having vacant bed rooms to let out for tournament visitors, March 2 and 3. About 15 teams will be here, and all of them will need rooms. People are asked to call E. B. Butler, principal of the high school, and list their rooms.

The Rushville high seconds will tackle Everton here Friday night in the curtain raiser, and this should be a good game.

The varsity is hard at work, drilling for the last home game of the season, when they play the Garfield team of Terre Haute here Friday night.

ONE TEAM KICKS IN

The Fairview high school team has disbanded according to word received here. There seems to have been some trouble between the coach and the players, which resulted in the team causing a split-up.

ANOTHER ONE ABOUT READY

Even Newcastle isn't exactly satisfied with their coach this year, according to all reports, and the team up there is about on the verge of throwing up the sponge. Local high school players have hopes that Newcastle will straighten out their tangles, because they are a clean bunch of players and good sports.

WE NEED 'EM BOTH DOWN HERE, ALSO

Shootin' 'em in the News said recently that if Indianapolis had a curfew law, that they would produce better basketball teams. Up at Newcastle the officers are enforcing the law pertaining to the sale of tobacco to minors, which would also help Rushville a great deal in producing better basketball players.

ELWOOD IS ENTERED IN THE TRI-STATE TOURNAMENT AT CINCINNATI, BUT EVEN AT THAT, MOSCOW COULDN'T BACK OUT.

LET 'EM GO TO RUSSIA

Wouldn't it be funny if Moscow and Warsaw would happen to play each other sometime? It sure sounds Bolshevik.

A LONG WAY FOR NOTHING

The Terre Haute team is coming a long way for a game, so you Rushville gang ought to make it worth their time, when they play you.

FUN FOR ALL EXCEPT THE BASKET PLAYERS

Up at Richmond, they are advertising a new idea in basketball. Two teams are going to play the game on roller skates. The preliminary announcement calls attention to the fact that much amusement will be derived from witnessing the game. Hittin' 'em can't figure out how some players will be able to stand up, because some of 'em are always on the floor anyway. To make the thing fair, the referee ought to have skates on too.

WE KNOW SOME REFEREES THAT SHOULD HAVE HAD SKIDS PUT UNDER 'EM LONG AGO.

SAMUEL, DON'T LET 'EM KID YOU

Dear Hittin' 'em:—"We were talking to an inhabitant of Terre Haute, and one who has seen Garfield play many times, and he told us that Garfield has a good team but that he thought that Rushville could play on even terms with them. He had seen Rushville play also. Just whether or not that he is right remains to be seen, but we will always think so until we see different."

Yours, Samuel

WE CAN'T FIGURE IT OUT EITHER, BOYS

Dear Hittin' 'em:—"We can't understand why that every county and local team that Rushville has played and beat this year has it in for Rushville. Maybe they think that we aren't good enough to beat anybody or something and think that they shouldn't have been beaten by such a poor team, but it seems that it is about time that they were finding out that Rushville has got a team after all. Greensburg couldn't get through saying nasty things about Rushville and the team after we beat them. Manilla came out and was positively insulting in their high school paper about the way in which the cup was presented. We can't see what difference it made to them anyhow. The only reason why it was not presented on the floor after the game as advertised, was because the Milroy captain didn't stay to receive it and the authorities couldn't just give it to the first person that came along. These are the worst cases that we think of at present, but there are more that have been nearly as bad."

Breaking up Champion Teams

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 14—Champion ball clubs, in these days of "get rid of 'em when they crack," have a normal duration of only a few years.

More recently the Giants and the Yankees seem to have broken the spell that prevented clubs from repeating as pennant winners.

Requirements of modern baseball necessitate an ever changing policy in personnel as is evidenced by looking over the rosters of the major league clubs.

Not one of the great stars of the 1914 Athletics remain on Connie Mack's payroll. Many of them are still in the game, but they are scattered all over the circuit.

Hank Gowdy is the lone survivor of the champion Brave team of 1914.

The champion Boston Red Sox of 1915 have been completely disbanded and of the Philadelphia Nationals, which opposed them in the series that fall, none remain.

Olson, Wheat, Myers and Johnston are the only members of the Brooklyn champions of 1916 who are still drawing pay from Squire Ebbets.

Eddie Collins, Ray Schalk and Red Faber still survive, but all the other stars of the champion White Sox of 1917 have departed. Every one of the pennant winning Giants of the same year have also gone their ways.

Killifer, Hollocher, Deal and O'Farrell still wear the Cub uniforms, but the Cubs of 1918 have scattered. After winning the pennant and the championship in 1919, Pat Moran broke up the Cincinnati Reds. With Daubert, Duncan, Roush, Wingo and Luque as a foundation, he has built a new team that is another contender.

The Cleveland champions of 1921 are also under the process of reorganization. Coveleskie, Uhle, Morton, Wamby Sewel, Gardner and Jamieson are the only survivors; that Tris Speaker has on his roll.

The New York Yankees, have what might be considered a veteran club and the owners will have to keep building it up with new material as they go along.

The Giants, on the other hand, have virtually a young team and McGraw ought to be able to get along for three or four years with the material he now has at his disposal.

Disruption of a team usually results in a wide scattering of the players, but in a few cases many old teammates have found themselves back in company eventually.

The New York Yankees are the most notable example as they are made up almost entirely of groups of players from other clubs.

Baker, Bush, Schang, Penneck and Shawkey of the 1914 Athletics are all banded together again under the banner of Miller Huggins.

Along with the same group who reached New York via Boston are other Red Sox players including Scott, Ruth, Mays, Jones, Hoyt and McNally.

As the players come and go, so also do the managers. John McGraw and Connie Mack hold the record among the majors for long distance in office. Both have financial holdings in their clubs and both can have their jobs as long as they want them.

MOSCOW TO MEET ELWOOD FRIDAY

Rush County Team Draws Stiff Opponent for Game in Tri-State Tourney at Cincinnati

MANY TEAMS ARE ENTERED

Martinsville and Elwood are Regarded as Strongest Teams From This State

The Moscow, high school basketball team, which is entered in the Tri-State tourney at Cincinnati, drew a hard opponent for their first game Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock, and will stack up against Elwood, according to the drawing which was made by a neutral board.

The first round for places was drawn and the second round will be drawn later. Many Indiana teams are entered in the list, which includes teams from Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio. Only 10 minute halves will be played in all games excepting the semi-finals and finals which will be fifteen minute halves.

Although Elwood is a strong team, yet if Moscow would enter the game at full speed and play them off their feet at the start, they could win out in the short period allotted for the game.

Cincinnati, Feb. 14—Cincinnati University's seventh annual tri-State basketball tourney for high school teams will open here Friday, with fifty-two schools, a record entry list, in line.

Martinsville and Elwood, two of the strongest Hoosier teams, will compete in the tourney and their play will be watched with interest here because of the good showing of Indiana teams in past meets. Martinsville won the tri-State tournament last year.

Indiana teams will play as follows in the first round:
8:30 a. m., Moscow and Elwood;
10:30 a. m., Aurora and Augusta, Ky.
11:30 a. m., Wayne Township, High and Batavia, Ohio.

12 noon, Lawrenceburg and Madison.
12:30 p. m., Perry Central (Lebanon) and Franklin School of Cincinnati.

FIGHT RESULTS

*Boston—Pancho Villa, American flyweight champion, knocked out Frankie Mason, Fort Wayne, in the fifth round.

New York—Jack Bernstein, New York lightweight, won a 12 round decision from Gene Delmont, Memphis.

At Milwaukee—Pinkey Mitchell outpointed Johnny Tillman, in 10 rounds.

At Indianapolis—Eddie Dier knocked out young Carpenter in 3 rounds; Happy Atheron outpointed Joe Cappodere.

Chicago—Jimmy Kelly outpointed Battling Chink in ten rounds.

St. Louis.—Urban Shocker, king pin of the Browns' pitching staff, who signed his name to a 1923 contract last night, was the sixteenth member of Lee Fohl's first string squad to enter the fold.

Secret of His Success

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this country in a recent article said, "Whatever I am and what ever success I have attained in this world I owe it all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration and the greatest helpmate of my life." Health is the first essential of every woman who wants to be a successful wife and to hold the love and admiration of her husband. If a woman finds her energies flagging and dark circles appearing under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, nervousness and "the blues". She should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the medicine which holds the record of helping 98 out of every 100 women who try it. There is nothing better.

SPORT CHATTER

London.—Joe Beckett's fight with Dick Smith for the British heavy-weight championship, scheduled for next Monday night, has been postponed on account of an injury to Beckett's hand.

Buffalo.—In a five set match William T. Tilden, world's singles champion, won the first indoor tournament of the Buffalo tennis and squash club from Vincent Richards at 6-4, 4-6, 3-6, 6-3 and 6-1.

It Started Something

"Your medicine is the talk of the town" since pulling me from the grave. I have told dozens about it and I know of at least ten who are now taking May's Wonderful Remedy, all with good results. I never saw anything like it. One man who had been operated on for gall stones and had them come back, took it and says his symptoms are all gone now and he swears he is cured." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation, which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. ST. MARY'S MOPS UP CONNERSVILLE FIVE

Catholic Team Defeats Visitors Tuesday Night, 25 to 22, in Close Contest

KEEP LEAD ALL THE WAY

The St. Mary's School basketball team of this city defeated the school team from Connersville, in a game played here Tuesday night, the final count being 25 to 22. The local team maintained a slight lead at all times and the first half ended 11 to 9.

Mullins, center for the Rushville team, was the point getter, and made 13 points, while for Connersville Hamilton and Church stood out best. St. Mary's thus avenged a defeat by Connersville last season.

The line-up and summary:
St. Mary's 25 Connersville 22
Keating F Turner 10
Joyce F Readman 10
Mullins C Hamilton 10
O'Neil G Greinner 10
Cauley G Church 10
Field goals Keating 3, Joyce, Mullins, 6; Cauley, Turney, Hamilton 2, Church 4. Foul goals, Keating, Mullins, Cauley, Readman, Greinner 3.

MOSCOW WINS FROM WEBB AT BLUE RIDGE

Holds Visiting Basketeers to Three Field Goals, But They Count With 9 Foul Goals

WEBB GIRLS TAKE OPENER

The Moscow high school team again showed their strength over a county team, when they defeated the Webb team Tuesday night at Blue Ridge, by the score of 22 to 15, leading the visiting team at every stage, and holding them to three field goals.

The first half ended 13 to 4. Coleman and B. Hungerford were the main point getters for Moscow, each scoring 3 times from the field. Talbert for Webb caged 2 goals from the field, and 8 from the foul line.

In the preliminary game the Webb girls were victorious over the Moscow girls, 13 to 8.

Moscow leaves Thursday for Cincinnati where they are entered in the Tri-State tourney, which begins in the morning, and in which 52 teams are entered.

The line-up and summary:
Moscow 22 Webb 15
Coleman F Davison 10
B. Hungerford F Gibson 10
Gosnell C E. Hungerford 10
Tillison G Osborn 10
I. Hungerford G H. Hungerford 10

MAX VANOSDOL, RUSHVILLE BOY, IS MEMBER OF INDIANA UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB, JUST BACK FROM STATE TOUR

INDIANA UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB

Second Row—Marasigan, Rafferty, Head, Marchand, Jones, Mitten, Flanagan, King.
Third Row—Bierhaus, Luppelatz, Utley, Combe, Fieber, Whitlock, Gremelspacher.
Bottom Row—Long, Hindsley, Kinneman, Geiger (Director) Egan, Williams, Ramsey.

Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 14.—Max VanOsdol, of Rushville, a member of the Indiana university Glee Club, has just returned from a tour of the state, which was one of the most successful trips ever made by the big state university musical organization. The club consisted of 32 musicians and included a college orchestra and a number of soloists.

The favor with which young VanOsdol and his fellow artists from

Indiana university were received is indicated by the following excerpt from a report of the concert at Madison in the Madison Herald:

"Long before the scheduled hour yesterday afternoon for the performance of the Indiana University Glee Club, the Opera House was packed, every seat on the main floor, balcony and boxes being taken. The club was composed of thirty-two members and each musician entered into the program with great enthusiasm. Every number received the heartiest applause from the vast crowd and the encores were equally well received.

"The program was one of the most delightful entertainments that the American Legion has ever brought to Madison. It is hoped that they will bring more of this sort of entertainment to the public, for the Indiana Glee Club certainly pleased."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell were host and hostess to a prettily appointed dinner party Tuesday evening at their home northeast of the city. The decorations for the table were in keeping with Valentine day and pretty place cards marked the covers for twenty-two guests. Music and bridge were enjoyed following the serving of the repast.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Easley entertained the members of the Century club Tuesday evening at their home in North Perkins street. Besides the members Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reynolds of Glenwood were guests at the meeting. The evening was enjoyed over the card tables playing Five Hundred. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Carl F. Behr and Mrs. Warden Wyatt entertained the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club Tuesday with a one o'clock luncheon at the home of the former in North Main street. The appointments for the luncheon were carried out in Valentine suggestions and following the serving of the dinner the guests spent the remainder of the afternoon over the card tables.

Miss Margaret Crimm entertained a number of her little friends Tuesday afternoon from 3:30 to 6:00 o'clock at her home in North Morgan street, with a Valentine party, honoring her birthday anniversary. The guests spent the afternoon playing games and refreshments were served. Those present were Judith Mauzy, Loretta Edmondson, Martha Wyatt, Ellen Jane Capp, Martha Jean Matlock, Laura and Dorothy Rungstein, Laura Dell Geise, Margaret Lambert and Anna Rebecca Allen.

FRANCE MAKES BID FOR BRITISH HELP

fine of one hundred million marks levied by the French because of the shooting of two French officers Monday.

Leading bankers of Gelsenkirchen immediately were arrested and the French will attempt to force payment of the fine.

Citizens are planning a deputation to General Deputte to demand release of the police force, which was arrested enmass yesterday when the invaders were unable to discover the identity of the persons who wounded the officers. It is understood that the French are not likely to release the police, but will hold them for court martial. If any of the German police are found guilty of having participated in the shooting they are liable to the death penalty.

Paris, Feb. 14.—Thirty-two persons were arrested by French troops at Gelsenkirchen today it was semi-officially announced. New and more drastic measures are planned at that city if any further disorders occur.

The incident which caused the reprisal of the French was the shooting of two French soldiers Monday and the town's refusal to pay a fine of one hundred million marks.

Portland —The grim reaper, the stork and cupid ran a neck and neck race in Portland during the past month with nineteen births and deaths and eighteen marriages.

Mattox Circle, No. 51. Ladies of the G. A. R. will hold their regular meeting in the assembly room of the court house Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

The Ladies Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet Thursday with Mrs. Dalton Powell, at her home east of Rushville. All members are requested to leave on the traction car at 11:56 noon.

Mrs. D. C. Compton's Sunday school class of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church will be entertained tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles Fisher in West Third Street. All the members of the class are urged to be present.

Mrs. Charles Osman was hostess to the members of the Wednesday Afternoon Sewing club this afternoon at her home in West First street. The ladies spent the afternoon over their sewing and the hostess served a two course luncheon at the close of the afternoon.

"Getting Married", a play written by Bernard Shaw, was interestingly reviewed by Mrs. A. L. Gary Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Shakespeare club, which was held at the home of Miss Lena Buell in North Perkins street. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the program.

Mrs. Herman Stalker entertained with a surprise party Monday evening at her home in Orange, honoring the birthday anniversary of her husband. The guests included the high school pupils, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinchman, Miss Leona Nuckles, Miss Margaret Hite and Miss Bessie Russels. The evening was enjoyed by the guests informally and the hostess served refreshments of fruit salad and cake at the close of the evening.

The Pastor's Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church had a very enjoyable meeting Tuesday afternoon in the basement of the church, the officers of the society being hostess to the remainder of the members. The basement was very artistically decorated for the occasion with Valentine hearts and cupid, in keeping with Valentine day. A short musical program was given followed by a social hour. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Misses Geraghty entertained with a delightful card party Tuesday evening at their home, 214 West Second street. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with bouquets of cut flowers and hearts, in keeping with Valentine day. Twenty-three card tables were placed about the rooms and the one hundred guests enjoyed the evening playing euchre. At the close of the games delicious refreshments of brick ice cream and heart shaped cake were served.

The Sorosis Club of Glenwood was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emma Powell in this city. Nine members and one guest, Miss Stella Shortridge, were present for the meeting. The responses to the roll call were "News of the World". Mrs. A. J. Britt gave an interesting paper on "John Drinkwater" and Mrs. J. C. Paxton gave a reading on "The Perfect Tribute," written by Mary R. F. Andrews, and which deals with the life of Lincoln. A social hour was the closing feature of the meeting during which the hostess served refreshments. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Paxton in Glenwood, February 27.

Pretty floor lamps, potted plants and bouquets of cut flowers formed a pretty setting for the reception for the new minister of the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. Gibson Wilson and family, held Tuesday evening in the Sunday school room of the church. In the receiving line was Mrs. Mary Holmes, the oldest lady member of the church, the Rev. and Mrs. Wilson, daughters Kathryn and Carolyn and son Edward, Mrs. Tom Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Megee, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cowing, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hogsett.

The addresses of welcome were given by the Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Main Street Christian church, the Rev. H. W. Hargett, of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. G. McKibben, of the First United Presbyterian church and W. A. Young. The Rev. Mr. Wilson responded with an excellent talk. Delightful musical numbers were given by the orchestra of the First Baptist church and a male quartet of the St. Paul's church. Miss Bernice Kelso sang a beautiful solo, and the Misses Bonnie Jeanne and Frances Beale delighted the audience with a vocal duet. Miss Janie Megee rendered a piano solo. J. T. Arbuckle presided during the program. Following the program, an informal social hour was enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served.

100 WAYS To Make Money

By BILLY WINNER

If I Washed Windows—

THE first thing I would do would be to let as many people as possible know that I washed windows and could wash theirs.

This would require a lot of time if I had to go around from house to house and building to building, but I wouldn't do that. Instead, I'd let a Daily Republican Want Ad carry my message. Think of the time I'd save, to say nothing of the new customers I'd get.

Any number of families have windows that they want washed, but they don't know whom to get to do the job. My Want Ad would tell them. More than likely I'd have to get an assistant or two, but that would mean more profit to me.

Hair And Hats Make Or Mar The Beauty Of Women

By HEDDA HOYT

(Written for United Press)

New York, N. Y., Feb. 14.—There are ways of lessening facial defects and of magnifying the best features of the face by means of appropriate hats and hair-does.

Many women make the mistake of buying the reigning hat style regardless of its becomingness to them. The off the face type of hat which has been more or less in vogue for several seasons has been the ruin of so many women. The slender faced woman is absolutely lost in a hat that turns upward from her small narrow face. She needs a moderately wide hat that casts soft shadows over her face, a hat of the mushroom variety. The girl with the up-turned nose or with the large imperfect nose demands a hat with a wide front brim to minimize the imperfections of her profile.

How often we see a large woman with an over developed double chin and a large mouth, wearing one of those small turbans pulled low over her best features—her eyes! Not only does she hide the best part of her face but she deliberately calls attention to the lower part of her face. She is of the type that would look better in a hat that turns slightly of the brow, leaving a halo about her face. By wearing a wider hat she lessens the appearance of the width of her lower face.

The stout face can wear the hair more tightly confined than the long slender featured face. That is one reason so many girls who were quite uninteresting-looking in long hair blossomed out into such beauties after a permanently waved fluffy "bob". Uneven features demand that the hair be soft and fluffy about the face. Only the girl who is sure of her profile should attempt the plain tight hair-do.

In studying our weak and our strong points how many of us really pay attention to the minor things that go to make one a charming personality? I read recently that no woman could consider herself a charming individual who had unclean fingernails. This goes beyond my point, but it expresses my meaning nevertheless. It's the little things that one should pay attention to if one wishes to be popular with one's friends.

Take color, for instance. Now many dark eyed women effect red, simply because they think it looks Spanish or vampish when really they are too old and too unattractive to attempt such a violent color.

There are no set rules of color for blonds, mediums and brunettes to follow. They must use their heads. Some brown-eyed people look wonderful in brown, while others are far more attractive in black, blues or vivid colors. To wear brown well, the brown eyed girl must have some glint of red in her hair. Even the incomparable Rodolph Valentino, with his glorious brown eyes and his dark hair, admits that brown is not his color. His suits are usually gray, blue or black but never brown. I know a pale sandy-haired woman who was told many years ago that lavender was her color. She is still inflicting it upon us, in spite of the fact that her sandy tresses are streaked with gray. Probably when she is gray enough, lavender will be becoming to her.

Never buy material for a new gown, unless you take several color samples home and test them out before your own mirror.

The low neck which extends slightly off the shoulder has been revived by Lanvin who has gone in for gowns of the medieval type. This neckline is not confined to the evening gown, but is used on many of his afternoon frocks of dark materials.

PLANS APPROVED FOR NEW BUILDING

feet and will have a seating capacity of approximately 350 people. The ceiling will be fifteen feet high and the basketball court will be 35 by 65 feet.

An incline will be constructed at the rear of the building leading to an entrance to the gymnasium so that the basketball court may also be used for exhibition rooms at farmers' shows and for a stock judging pavilion.

The construction will be such that the auditorium may be converted into class rooms and a high school assembly and at the same time be used as an auditorium, if it is ever decided to add a high school. There will be windows at both ends of the auditorium to provide ample light.

There will be a corridor ten feet wide running east and west through the building and dividing the class rooms from the auditorium. There will be east and west entrances at the ends of the corridor where school children will enter and leave the building. The main entrance is on the south, opening into a seven-foot hall.

There will be a drive around the building so that pupils may enter and leave the school hacks on school property and thus avoid the danger of accidents which might result if the school hacks stopped in front of the building on the main road.

The building will stand thirty feet above the ground and the first floor will be several feet above the ground to permit windows in the basement. The first floor rooms will have thirteen-foot ceilings. The structure will be semi-fireproof. It will be heated with a vapor heating system and lighted with a private electric lighting system.

efforts to establish a full time health officer in every county in Indiana and reorganize the state board of health, J. N. Hurty, formerly secretary of the board and representative from Marion county, introduced another bill in the house. It omits the health officer provision which defeated his first bill, but carries other provisions of the previous measure.

Hammering at the absent voter's law continued when Representative Leveron introduced a bill to repeal the law. A similar bill recently failed to pass the senate because of a lack of a constitutional majority.

Foes of the "blue Memorial day" bill turned toward Governor McCray today as a last resort to prevent prohibition of the annual 500-mile automobile races on the Indianapolis motor speedway.

Surprised by unexpected strength of the measure in a test vote by the state house of representatives late yesterday, its opponents were ready to admit that their fight appeared almost hopeless.

"I have not read the bill and until I read it, I cannot say whether I will sign it," Governor McCray said. The bill would bar all commercialized sporting events on Memorial Day. It has passed the senate and is ready for the final consideration in the house. An effort to attach vitiating amendments in the house failed 49 to 31.

If the measure is approved by the house, it will be sent to the governor. He can accept or reject it within ten days after it goes to his office. After that, however, the bill would become a law without his signature and the race scheduled for May 31 this year would have to be annulled.

An extra heavy seat sale has already started for the race, according to "Pop" Meyers, secretary and general manager of the speedway. Tickets have been ordered from far away points.

Both factions of the American Legion—those favoring and those opposed to the measure—were in the house of representatives when it was handed down for second reading. The stage was all set. A number of spectators lined the corridor railing.

In rapid fire order various amendments were offered and just as rapidly rejected.

FORMER CASHIER GUILTY

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—Heber Alton Beeson, former cashier of the Farmers Loan and Trust company of Columbia City, was found guilty of conspiracy to transport stolen automobiles in interstate commerce by a jury in federal court today. The verdict was reached last night and submitted to Judge Anderson when court convened.

THE HOME GARDEN

What is Home without a Garden?

TWO ROADS TO SUCCESSION CROPS

In making up a vegetable seed list, remember there are two ways of producing a succession of crops. One is by successive plantings of your favorite variety. Another is by planting at the same time varieties which will mature successively. In general, successive plantings are preferred where space is limited, and so the quickest growing varieties will produce greatest results. But if one has plenty of space, then a combination of the two systems is ideal, as it permits each vegetable to be treated in the way most suitable for it.

The earliest variety of sweet corn matures in about 55 days, while the latest takes 90 days. A succession may thus be sown May 1 which will produce a harvest from mid-June until mid-August. But those who consider Golden Bantam as the finest home garden variety will prefer to sow it every two weeks, and thus produce the succession crops.

Peas take from 45 days (for the smooth seeded Alaska) to 75 days to mature; and the tall growing types, which bear most heavily and are excellent in flavor, are later than the dwarf. So planting of different varieties for succession in crop promises a heavier yield, and no sacrifice in quality.

Radishes may be grown either way, and one should be guided by taste; as many do not care for the long types which stand the summer heat; but prefer many sowings of the milder globe and olive sorts. For a lettuce succession, on the other hand, one must choose different varieties. Start with a leaf or loose heading variety, sown indoors at the earliest moment and harvested when half grown, using the plants which are thinned out; at the same time set out plants of a butter-head variety which has been started indoors and will mature heads before hot weather begins. And for later harvest sow crisp head and cos lettuce.

When sowing in late summer for a fall harvest, do not sow late maturing varieties. The early varieties are used again for the fall crop. Late varieties are sown in the spring or early summer, as they take the season to reach maturity.

These suggestions are given to help one in selecting a planting list. The more complete information about the different varieties which is given in seed catalogs should be studied in the light of these suggestions, which are necessarily incomplete.

Income Tax Facts.

NO. 12.

Inquiries received by the Bureau of Internal Revenue indicate a mistaken impression in the minds of many taxpayers concerning deductions from gross income for personal expenses. Deductions for living or family expenses, such as amounts expended for food, clothing, education of children, rent for a dwelling, hire of domestic servants and similar items for the upkeep of a home are expressly disallowed by the revenue act.

A storekeeper may not clothe himself and family with goods taken from the store and deduct the cost of the clothing as a business expense. A restaurant keeper or hotel proprietor should make an allowance for meals for himself and family.

The same rule applies to a physician who conducts a sanitarium. A shopkeeper who dwells over his place of business should deduct as a business expense the rental only of the portion of the building used for business. A farmer may deduct as a business expense wages paid a farm hand but not those of domestic employed in his household.

A physician who maintains an office in a rented home may deduct the proportion of such rent properly chargeable to the portion used for professional purposes. If, however, he maintains an office elsewhere and incidentally receives patients at his home, he is not entitled to deduct any part of the rent for his residence as a business expense. If a physician owns the home in which he has his office no deduction for rent allowed.

The same general rulings in regard to deductions for home and office expense apply to other professional men.

BILL PENDING TO PROTECT MUSSELS

Would Create A Closed Season For
Small Varieties Of Fish Not
Now Protected

VALUABLE FOR BUTTONS.

Streams Are Being Looted Of Mus-
sels By Men Of Other States
Who Scoop Them Up By Tons

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—A bill pending in the legislature which would create a closed season for all varieties of fish would help save valuable mussels in Indiana streams, according to George Mannfeld, director of the division of fish and game in the department of conservation.

Mannfeld said today that the streams being looted of the mussels by men from other states, who come into Indiana and scoop them up by the ton. Indiana now has no law protecting the mussels and other states have stringent laws, Mannfeld said.

The men from other states make money from their operations, Mannfeld said. Mussels are valuable in making buttons and occasionally they yield valuable pearls.

There is a factory at Shoals, Ind., for making buttons but many of the shells are shipped to Muscatine, Iowa where one of the largest button factories in the world is located.

The mussel hunters that invade Indiana streams, scoop up the shells from the stream beds and put them into boats. Then they take the meat from the inside and bait trout lines.

The bill which provides a closed season for fish was presented by Representative Collins. The season would be closed from April 13 to June 16.

It carries a fine of $10 to $50 and ten days imprisonment making a separate offense for every fish caught.

Other provisions of the bill are:

Terminating all licenses to hunt and fish on December 31 of each year. Outstanding licenses to be good for the term for which they were issued.

Raising the price of non-resident fishing licenses to $2.25; reducing non-resident hunting licenses to $10.50. (Present prices are: Non-resident fishing licenses $1.00; non-resident hunting license, $15.50.

Establishing a license, both resident and non-resident, to trap; resident license $2.25; non-resident $15.50; resident trapping license to carry also the privilege to hunt and fish.

Placing a length of 5-inches on bluegills and rockbass (goggleeye) and reducing the daily catch on black bass to 10 per day; bluegills, crappie and rock bass each to 25 a day. No more than 50 fish of the above species to be held in possession by anyone after fishing two days or more.

Fishing without license limited to one's own county.

No license needed by persons under 16-years of age, resident owners of land and their tenants, honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the civil war, and the wife of a man who has a license to fish.

Making Indiana laws relating to shooting ducks and other migratory birds conform to the regulations of the federal government.

Establishing a closed season on rabbits from January 15 to October 1 with a provision that bona fide owners of lands or their tenants may kill them at any time when found doing damage to their property.

Sulphur Soothes Ugly, Itching Skin

The First Application Makes Skin
Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declared a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.
